Good evening everyone & Welcome to @SWSCMedia debate on #SocialWork #SocialCare & #MentalHealth Apps #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 00:19 | SWSCmedia

With new technologies, our lived experience is a contemporaneous mixture of overlapping "online" & "offline" "realities" #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 00:19 | SWSCmedia

& our "online" experiences are determined by increasing number of online apps designed for every sort of engagement. #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 00:19 | SWSCmedia

So for today's debate we focus on the various #SocialWork, #SocialCare & #MentalHealth Apps #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 00:19 | SWSCmedia

A critical success factor for apps is their ability to transform an "ordinary" experience/task into "extraordinary" & engaging 1. #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 01:06 | SWSCmedia

Teaching ppl that different things work for different ppl...and how to evaluate whether something makes sense. #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 01:07 | nj Smyth

@SWSCmedia That's what good #socialworkers can do too! (Yes, I'm still here....) #swscmedia

27-Sep-12 01:09 | ForSocialWork

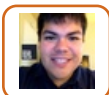

@SWSCmedia Seems like a tautology. What makes an app extraordinary? Have an example in mind? #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 01:09 | turning_Beth

Apps transform the "ordinary" into "extraordinary" & "boring" into "engaging" tasks through use of #Gamification strategies. #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 01:09 | SWSCmedia

I've done that! RT @turning_Beth: I use Insight Timer to time and end therapy sessions. #SWSCMedia

27-Sep-12 01:10 | SWSCmedia

@SWSCmedia @nj Smyth Apps need to be intuitive and easy to use - language barriers for many clients (different culture, etc)

27-Sep-12 01:10 | myjoythisway

& How can gamification strategies be applied in #socialwork #socialcare & #mentalhealth? #SWSCmedia
